PEER REVIEW PROCESS

Papers will be evaluated for their originality, significance, clarity, and contribution to the field. It is MAGM policy to send full papers to at least two reviewers for full single blind peer review and to send a summary of review back to the author(s). Short papers will be reviewed by a reviewer and/or the program committee members without sending review comments. Submitted Papers must not have been previously published or currently submitted for publication elsewhere. The themes of the conference will be debated in both plenary and parallel sessions.

The plenary sessions, in particular, will be based on the contributions of well-known academics and professionals who will take part in the debate as key speakers, discussants, or interviewees. During the parallel sessions, the full papers that have been selected by means of a single-blind peer review will be presented.

Conference proceedings will be published both as an e-book and printed book - Referred Electronic Conference Proceedings (ISBN: 978-617-593-058-8) and will be sent after the conference to indexing.

Conference Proceedings will be released in an open access form via the university website - www.snau.edu.ua - after the conference.
